DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gill et al. (US 5,156,991) in further view of the admitted prior art.

Gill discloses the limitations of:

forming a bypass film (19, fig. 4c) from an insulation film (20, fig. 4c) through which a leak current is able to easily flow as compared with a gate insulation film of a MIS transistor and forming a gate electrode (12 and 17, fig. 2a) which extends above said bypass film (col. 5, ln. 43 – col. 6, ln. 17); and performing a work process (col. 3, lns. 29-47).

Gill discloses the claimed invention except for etching off said first gate insulation film at a region of said bypass film and forming a second gate insulation film to become said bypass film and wherein the gate electrodes of a MOS transistor form a pixel.

However, there is no distinction in the functioning of the bypass film whether etching gate insulation film partially or fully and forming a second gate insulation and the background section on page 5 of the specification, third paragraph, discloses that it is known to form a pixel out of a transistor; therefore one of ordinary skill in the art would use these limitations with the invention disclosed by Gill.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The applicant claims "a drain region located other than within any active region". However, the specification describes the drain region being located in the active region of other devices adjacent to the current device being looked at.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14-17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. The MIS in Gill is inherently suppressed and destaticization due to the fact the thin bypass oxide is present in the device as per applicant's claims.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 2812

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
